

New High Seen in Corporation Profits in 1955

WASHINGTON, AP — The government reported today that corporation profits are headed for a new all time high. In contrast, farmers' net income this year will be about 10 percent below last year.

The corporation profit estimate came from President Eisenhower's Council of Economic Advisers. It boomed administration hopes for balancing the federal budget and cutting taxes in 1956.

For the first nine months of this year, corporation profits were rocketing along at an annual rate of 42,800,000,000.

BUT THE DECLINE in farm income emphasized the administration's difficulties with a problem that has become about the biggest issue now in the coming presidential election campaign.

The Agriculture Department predicted that the farmers' taxable net income for 1955 will be about $10,600,000,000, which is $1,200,000,000 below last year. Prospects for 1956 point to some further decline.

Actually, farmers' cash receipts so far this year have been about 4 percent below a year ago. But higher production expenses are expected to shave the net taxable income to 10 percent.

THE COUNCIL'S ESTIMATE of corporation profits for the third quarter will be published in the monthly publication of the Senate-House Economic Committee. The details were made available in advance to the United Press.

The administration meanwhile kept a firm hand on the nation's expanding credit. Six Federal Reserve banks raised their interest rates today from 2 1/4 to 2 1/2 percent. This is a move which tends to curb borrowing.

An additional one billion dollars more than the administration expected in August will pour into the Treasury in the form of taxes. This would go a long way toward cutting down the deficit which, in August, was estimated at $1,700,000,000.

Crab Orchard Lake, a man-made lake covering 10.95 square miles, is the largest lake in Illinois.

No Wrongdoing by Bonelli Says Reilly on Stand

SAN DIEGO, AP — George Reilly, San Francisco member of the Board of Equalization, says he has no knowledge of any wrongdoing by former board member William G. Bonelli, now under indictment here on charges of election law violations.

Reilly, who was one of six witnesses appearing yesterday before the county grand jury, made the statement about Bonelli to reporters who were queried about liquor license violations.

The other five were tavern owners who were queried about liquor license violations.

Dist. Atty. Don Keller said the panel was interested only in operations of the board when Bonelli was a member. Bonelli, defeated in November, 1954, was accused of soliciting campaign contributions from liquor license applicants.

He is now in Arizona fighting extradition. He contends the law under which he was indicted is unconstitutional.

Yorty to Speak to Local Club

Former Congressman Samuel Yorty, candidate for the Democratic nomination for U. S. Senator, will discuss the prospect of the Democratic Party in the coming national election when he addresses the Palm Springs Area Democratic Club Monday at 8 p.m. at the American Legion Auditorium on Belardo Road, Herb Hass, secretary of the club, announced today.

Hass said election of new officers of the club will be held, now that the season is under way, and attendance is near its peak. Yorty was Democratic candidate for the Senate in 1954. He was defeated by Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel.

Asks Longer Term Until Debts Are Paid

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. AP — Vernon Moran, a retired Army sergeant, asked for a longer hitch in jail when a judge sentenced him to 16 months for forgery.

"I could use a little more," Moran said, explaining it would be nice to spend about two years in jail while his Army pension pays off his debts.

Tokyo Protests to South Korea

TOKYO AP — Japan protested today to the Republic of South Korea against its orders to fire on Japanese ships sailing near Korean shores.

Vice Foreign Minister Seimitsu Kadowaki called Korean Minister Kim Yong Shi to his office and told Kim Japan takes a "grave view" of the order issued by the ROK military joint chiefs of staff.

In a written statement yesterday, the Korean military staff said ROK patrol craft will fire upon and sink "if necessary" Japanese fishing vessels that cross inside Korea's disputed Rhee fishery line. Kadowaki told him Japan did not recognize the 60-mile offshore line set by Korean President Syngman Rhee. He warned that Korea must assume full responsibility if any Japanese vessels are attacked.

Division in GOP Ranks Indicated by 2 Governors

By LYLE C. WILSON

United Press Staff Correspondent WASHINGTON, AP — Two Republican governors have just been heard from on the subject of the 1956 GOP presidential nomination.

One governor hopes Mr. Eisenhower will not run again. The other hopes he does. What they had to say adds up to considerable support for the idea that Mr. Eisenhower is the GOP's indispensable man, after all.

Governor No. 1 was Utah's J. Bracken Lee. Lee is for Sen. William F. Knowland of California for the Republican presidential nomination. He said health considerations should forbid Mr. Eisenhower running again.

What he had to say is cited here as evidence of a real division within the Republican Party. He repudiated Eisenhower's foreign and domestic policies, especially on ground of failing to reduce government spending sufficiently. The governor said the Republican administration was conducting giveaway programs begun by the Democrats. He wants farm subsidies discontinued.

Faure Rejects Hints He Resign

PARIS, AP — Premier Edgar Faure rejected suggestions that he resign today in the midst of his fight with a hostile Parliament over his plans for early general elections.

But a three and a half-hour Cabinet session presided over by President Rene Coty failed to produce agreement on what election system the Cabinet should support in forthcoming debate in the National Assembly.

The three-week-old deadlock in the Parliament over the electoral law issue has stalled Faure's original plan to hold elections early in December rather than next June as scheduled.

Author O'Connor Found Guilty of Contempt Today

WASHINGTON, AP — Author Harvey O'Connor was found guilty of contempt of Congress today by Federal Judge Joseph C. McGaraghy.

He was fined $500 and put on probation for a year. His attorneys promptly announced they would appeal. O'Connor was continued free on $1000 bond.

The charge against O'Connor, 58, biographer of American millionaires, stemmed from his refusal two years ago to tell Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy's Investigating Subcommittee whether he was a Communist when he wrote some books used in American overseas libraries.

O'Connor, of Winnetka, Ill., commented wryly that both McCarthy and the government had repeatedly said they were not the least bit interested in the content of any of his books.

"The First Amendment is the crux of the case—the freedom of a writer to write books," he said.

Security Group Faces Turmoil in Cain Contest

WASHINGTON, AP — A long smoldering feud between the Justice Department and former Sen. Harry P. Cain (R-Wash.) threatened today to throw the Subversive Activities Control Board into a turmoil.

The board was asked to decide, in the light of evidence submitted by the department, whether to disqualify Cain, one of its members, from a security case brought by Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell Jr.

Cain, an SACB member since 1953, has been presiding at hearings in Seattle on Brownell's allegations that the Washington Pension Union is a Communist front.

THE DEPARTMENT suggested to the SACB last week that if review of an eight-month-old charge brought by the Pension Union that Cain is too "biased and prejudiced" to participate in the proceedings. The old charge states that Cain is biased against the defendant, not the government. For this reason the department request is not directly connected with its running argument with Cain over loyalty-security matters. But Cain has been a persistent critic of the administration's employee security program.

SACB Chairman Thomas J. Herbert said late yesterday that the board has not decided what to do.

Smith Act Trial Figure Stricken

SAN FRANCISCO, AP — Paul Crouch, an admitted ex-Communist who testified as a government witness in several prominent Smith act trials, died at University of California Hospital of lung cancer today. He was 52.

Crouch, a native of Maravon Falls, N. C., was stricken with cancer in Hawaii last year, underwent several exploratory operations in the islands, and was brought here August 11 for treatment at UC's radiological center.

Bar Association Honors Mrs. Hill

Desert Bar Association, represented by President David M. McGahey, this morning honored Mrs. Erma Hill upon her retirement after 25 years service with the Riverside county clerk's office.

Mrs. Hill, who completed her service at the Indian branch of the courthouse, was presented a gift by McGahey. She formerly was associated with the Riverside office.

McGahey said that all members of the association were very appreciative of the many services that Mrs. Hill had given them, both at Riverside and Indio.

Israeli Officials Report Three New Border Clashes

TEL AVIV, Israel AP — Israeli officials today reported three border clashes with Egyptian and Jordan Arabs.

Authorities said a patrol yesterday afternoon killed two Egyptian scouts in a chase along the border of the Gaza Strip.

Infiltrators from Jordan tried to blow up a house on the outskirts of the Bet Kama settlement near the border, a military spokesman said, and tracks of four men were found leading back to Jordan.

Maj. Dan Gov said another Egyptian force attacked the Bee-airy settlement in the Negev Desert but was driven off. Only casualties reported were in the Gaza Strip skirmish.

Cost of Natural Gas Under Study

SAN FRANCISCO, AP — The California attorney general's office announced today it will conduct an investigation into the continuing increases in the cost of natural gas to the state.

Atty. Gen. Edmund G. (Pat) Brown named Chief Deputy William V. O'Connor to confer with the Federal Power Commission on the subject. He will leave shortly for Washington.

A Bad Situation—Another voice is being heard at the present time insofar as architects' fees for new school buildings are concerned. Assemblyman Sam Geddes, of Napa and Solana counties, said recently:

"Excessive fees to architects are padding public school construction costs in California and impeding the state's efforts to provide adequate educational facilities for its ever-growing school population."

Assemblyman Geddes, to correct what he believes is a bad situation insofar as schools are concerned, will ask the assembly interim committee on education to join with him in sponsoring legislation to reduce the fees from the standard of 8 per cent, "to something still fair, but more in line with the services which the architects actually perform."

He also declared that in many instances, the charge for plans should not exceed 2 per cent of construction costs, instead of the standard 8 per cent. Funds saved would provide school buildings for thousands of pupils for whom the state has no proper facilities at the present time.

The question of architect's fees for school buildings has been the subject of extended controversy in state government for many years, especially since the state started contributions to distressed school districts with proceeds of bond issues voted by the people.

It is obvious enough that when an architect starts from scratch to construct a new school house, that he is entitled to his fee, as the architect.

The subject of controversy, therefore, is not so much the original fee, as the continued use of school buildings plans, or the adoption of standard plans, which the state has done only in a mild way.

In other words, what has raised the controversy is the continued charging of an 8 per cent fee by the architects when plans are duplicated, as they are in many school districts.

A graduated scale of fees might be worked out whereby the architect would get a reasonable fee, and the scale could be based either on the amount of monies involved, or upon the re-use of prior plans which the school district already has paid for.

Undoubtedly, this would not be wholly satisfactory to the architects who are used to their 8 per cent fee on any construction. But it would be beneficial to the taxpayers of the state.

It will be interesting to see what happens to Geddes' bill, first whether the remainder of the committee will join with him in sponsoring the measure, and second, whether the powerful architects' lobby, which is much in evidence in Sacramento during legislative time, will be strong enough to stop the measure.

In any event, the problem is before the legislature, as it long has been. Probably the only manner in which it will be solved will be the adoption by the state department of education of a series of standard plans for the construction of school buildings in California, a procedure which on its face would assure more buildings for the available money.

Dillon, S.C., Herald — "A dollar is worth only as much as it will buy. As the price of commodities goes up the value of the dollar goes down. As wages increase, there is a corresponding increase in commodity prices. Likewise, as wages decrease and buying power diminishes there is a corresponding decrease in prices. This is due to the proper functioning of natural laws. Man-made laws never have and never will be able to change these laws. And so how will it profit labor if wages are increased say 15 per cent and the cost of living rises 15 per cent? Economists who try to argue otherwise are merely throwing up a smoke screen to conceal the real facts.

Torrington, Wyo., Telegram — "The newspaper boy gets an education from his 'doing.' He learns to know people, he learns the ingredients of the process of preparing and distributing a product of vital importance to all Americans. . . . That's why it happens so often that the ex-newspaper boy comes out a little bit ahead — by any standard of values. He has learned by doing."

Bishop, Calif., Inyo Register — "How are your horses today? Those 65 horses that do so much work around the house for you. The horses referred to are those used to designate the amount of mechanical energy — horsepower — used by the average American home-maker in her toaster, vacuum cleaner, electric washing machine, refrigerator and all those wonderful adjuncts to the better life contributed by American inventive genius."

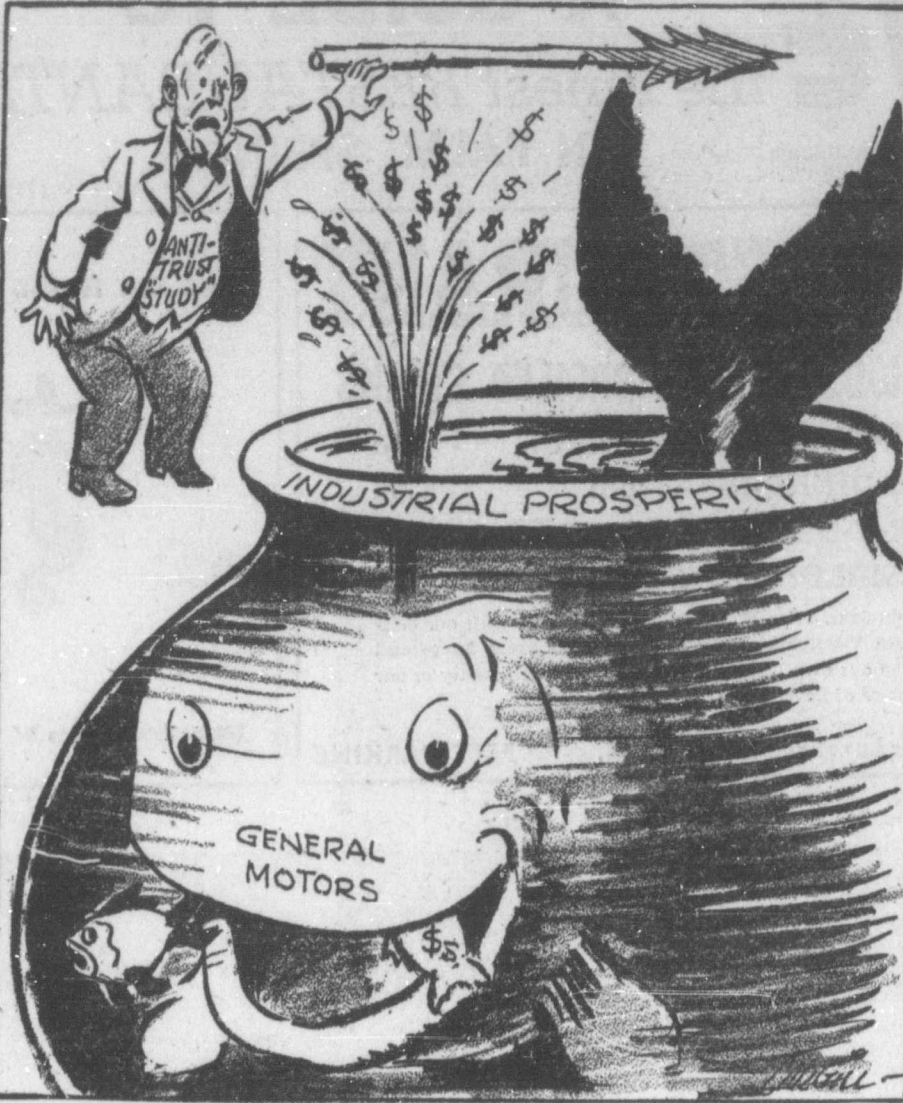

(St. Louis Globe Journal)

LIMITING COURT-MARTIAL — The United States Supreme Court handed down a sane decision when it ruled a law permitting the armed services to court-martial ex-GIs for crimes committed in service is constitutionally invalid. That does not mean such crime should escape punishment. It means such a crime cannot be subject to military trial.

The case at issue was that of former Air Force Sgt. Robert W. Toth, charged with killing a South Korean civilian, Bong Soon Kil. If this was culpable homicide, the defendant should be tried, and if convicted he should be punished. The Air Force contended the former G.I. could not be tried in civil courts. It is impossible not to agree with Justice Black, who declared there is no valid reason that a civilian former serviceman must be tried by court-martial, or not tried at all.

Crimes committed during service should be punished by the service if possible. If not possible, punishment should be lodged with District Courts by Congress. The military's authority should end with separation from military service. Otherwise this essential branch of government would encroach upon civilian life, expanding military influence beyond its proper scope. That is not a salutary thing in democracy.

THAR SHE BLOWS!

THIS SIDE of The Sun

By DON

Golf and tennis,
Conventions too,
Makes a menace
Of me, you too?

And this is only the first part of the Fall season. Can anybody predict what the Village is going to be like in the usual busiest portion of the year—from February through May? After four years here, I can only say that this year has started out to be the dizziest to date. Wonder if it has anything to do with The Desert Sun going daily?

Some column, perhaps a few later, will devote it to my pet peeves. Don't want to lose popularity, what I might have, quite yet. Actually, don't have too many. That's the reason I have to wait a few columns. People here are usually very cooperative.

UNDERSTAND A BATHER at a Desert Hot Springs pool had a pet peeve the other day though. Remember the old swimming hole? Well, this guy did. He was enjoying his hot mineral spring bath, thoroughly relaxed, and then returned to his car. Someone had taken his pair of pants and shoes. That wasn't too bad, he had more at home—but the pants contained the keys to the car.

Another person had trouble too in Palm Springs, but of a more minor nature. She called the police department to help her remove the bumper of her car from around a post on Palm Canyon Drive. Didn't inquire how, or why it was there. Was afraid it might turn out to be something simple and spoil the story.

HARRY OLIVER is back in the column again. Could say by request, but I like him too well. He is now urging a positive approach to the litterbug problem. Instead of complaining to the manufacturers who put beer and soft drinks in tin cans, why not shame those people by writing "Thank You" letters to Coca-Cola for keeping their world-wide product in bottles?

Another idea with that. Send a "Thank You" letter to the rum manufacturers too. And you might end up with "Rum and Coca-Cola."

PALM SPRINGS has a problem. It is well known for its western atmosphere, and must maintain it. Horses are an integral part of the town. Trails must be maintained, equestrian walks continued.

A poem ideally suited to the many persons who have helped in the past to maintain the Village's western tradition appeared in the "Pocket Primer" published by the Western Harness Racing Association. Entitled, "A Horse's Prayer" to his master, it follows:

"FEED ME, WATER, and care for me, and when the day's work is done provide me with shelter, a clean dry bed and stall large enough for me to lie down in comfort. Talk to me, your voice often means as much to me as the reins. Pet me, sometimes, that I may serve you the more gladly and learn to love you. Do not jerk the reins and do not whip me. Never strike, beat or kick me when I do not understand what you want, but give me a chance to understand you."

"Watch me. If I fail to do your bidding, see if something is not wrong with my rigging or perhaps my feet are sore due to shoes that do not fit me properly. That, you know, is very painful. Keep me well shod so my feet do not pain me, that I may serve you

YOUR CITY GOVERNMENT

By JACK SANDERS
City Building Inspector

The City Building Department was established at the time of the city's incorporation, but existed as a more or less one-man department up to and through most of the years of World War II.

During 1944, the staff was expanded to include one full time and one part time inspector. From 1946 to 1949, the number of inspectors fluctuated between three and four, a clerk-stenographer having been added to the department in 1947. In the latter part of 1949, the number of inspectors was reduced to two, and the staff has remained at two inspectors and one clerk-stenographer up to the present time, although the employment of a third inspector is now contemplated.

THE NUMBER of people on the Building Department staff has not increased during the past six years, but the same cannot be said of the volume of building.

Records in building valuation figures have been broken constantly during the current year. The total dollar valuation of construction in Palm Springs for 1955 will be approximately five times that in 1949. The building permits from 1938 to 1944 averaged $298,634 total valuation per year. At the end of the war, in 1945, the permit valuation jumped to $1,893,590 for the year, 429 permits having been issued.

Since that time, there has never been a year for which we have not had well over a million dollars valuation. Currently, through October of this year, 715 permits have been issued for a valuation of over $10,000,000.

THE CHECKING OF plans, issuance of building, plumbing and electrical permits and inspection of structures are only a few of the activities of the building department. Among other functions are the abatement of substandard structures, together with any hearings, procedures and inspections attendant thereto, the checking and approval of premises for business license, issuance of signs, housemoving and sewer connection permits.

The building department also acts as the enforcement agency for the planning department in administering the zoning laws, and handles all complaints pertaining to building, zoning, etc.

The city must from time to time bring its ordinances covering various phases of building construction up to date. The chief building inspector is responsible for seeing that these ordinance changes are recommended to city council and has had the cooperation of many of the local contractors in formulating new ordinances and ordinance amendments.

AT THE PRESENT time, the building department is in the process of rewriting the electrical ordinance which has not been changed since 1937. Due to the increased use of electrical appliances such as garbage disposals, automatic washers and driers, dish washers and electrical refrigeration, it was felt that the ordinance should be reviewed and brought up to date to provide more adequate wiring.

The increased building activity in Palm Springs has naturally caused a parallel increase in the number of inquiries made of the department, both over the counter and the telephone. Many and varied are the questions staff members attempt to answer daily as completely and satisfactorily as possible, from lot size and location to location of a home under construction.

The building department has membership in the Pacific Coast Building Officials Conference and inspectors regularly attend monthly chapter meetings of this group. Through the efforts of Donald E. Graham, former chief building inspector, the 1956 national convention and business meeting of the building officials will be held in Palm Springs for the first time.

NEW YORK — Looking back on it, I must say you surely do hear strange dialogue at the Met Opera opening. . . . I asked Hope Hampton, whose gown was the hit of the party, how long it took her to dress, and she answered, "Ten minutes — with bubble bath."

"Without bubble bath — it'd have been 5 minutes," added the Duchess of Park Avenue, once of Philadelphia, New Orleans, Dallas and Houston. (We're glad about the bath; it shows she's a musician.)

"I hate to miss anything," explained Hope, there with handsome Persian Prince Hassan Taghavi, who held her train for her when she walked.

Some other dialogue went like this: Bill Zeckendorf to me: "This is the first time I've seen you since you put your pants on" (referring to our meeting at a nudist wedding). . . . TV Star Ernie Kovacs: "Where we going for the next act?" . . . "How about Sardi's?" . . . "But Sardi is here!" . . . Famous Name (in Sherry's): "Oh, my goodness, you mean we missed another act just sittin' here?"

Blanche Thebom, Canton, O.'s gift to the Met, whom we congratulated on her gold tiara, looked around at some of the borrowed jewelry, and said, "The nice part about it is, it's MINE!"

Everybody piled over to El Morocco afterward. Hollywood's Mike Romanoff commented, "I didn't wear my crown tonight. . . . Just modesty, I guess."

The B.W. who, of course, was with me, observed, "With all those dresses, you didn't see any two alike."

"Most of them," snapped a by-sitter "should never have been made even once!"

Down at the Key Biscayne Hotel in Miami, Irving Berlin personally congratulated a dinner group for singing, "God Bless America," explaining he'd written it. The chairman snorted at Berlin. "A wise guy, eh? It so happens I'm a personal friend of Irving Berlin; so don't pull any of your phony impressions on me!" Now the chairman is blushing.

Washington Report

CHICAGO — Governor Averill Harriman is going to spring another surprise in his floundering presidential campaign.

He will climb back on the wagon of his old friend Adlai Stevenson. That's the inside word direct from the Harriman camp to Democratic chiefs assembled here from all over the country for a big pre-convention pow-wow. They are being told that "at the right time" the New Yorker will again declare he is for Stevenson, and has been all along—appearances to the contrary notwithstanding.

It is being carefully explained that this reaffirmation of support does not mean Harriman is abandoning his own presidential aspirations. Far from it. He still has hopes.

He is merely being realistic; no altruistic.

As a White House candidate, Harriman has gone nowhere so far. His campaign is in sad straits. The shot in the arm he hoped for, at that curious Albany affair where former President Truman gave him a left-handed boost, hasn't materialized. Harriman's boom just hasn't got off the ground.

He can't count on much more than half of New York's large delegation; only a scattering of backers in other key Northern states; and none at all in the South. In the rest of the country, the outlook is equally bleak. Private polls and other checks give Harriman definite first-choice support in only four states west of the Mississippi—Idaho, Utah, Colorado and Wyoming. In all the others he is zero-zero.

So the New York Governor—if he wants to stay in the presidential picture, which he does very much—has no choice but to shift strategy. He is not making headway frontally, so he has to try something else.

That's why he will again proclaim himself for Stevenson. By doing that, Harriman hopes to accomplish two very important things:

(1) Strengthen his own none-too-assured position in the New York delegation, where top leaders are openly against him, largely because they consider him too old

(64); and (2) clear the way for his lining up second-choice support among Stevensites, in the event the Illinoisan should falter in the coming hectic months.

This strategy is admittedly a long shot, but Harriman has few alternatives left. He has gone nowhere so far, and has to resort to some expedient to get moving.

NOTE: Tammany boss Carmine DeSapio, who is masterminding Harriman's campaign, is saying privately the New York Governor would accept second place on a Stevenson ticket. But DeSapio doesn't expect that will happen. He looks for the selection of a younger running mate from another section of the country, either the West or South.

INTERESTING BARGAIN — If you would like to own a former President's automobile, you can get it at a reasonable price.

All you have to do is to write—A 1470, Kansas City Star.

Tucked away unobtrusively in the classified ads section of the Star is the following intriguing announcement:

Chrysler, 1953, New Yorker DeLuxe. Formerly owned by President Harry S. Truman. Not run by anyone else. A little over 12,000 miles; like new. Special Powerflyte transmission; special wire wheels; special rug floor coverings; power seats; power steering; power brakes; power radio antennae; special upholstery. Most luxurious car in America. For sale.

NOTE: Truman is telling friends he has received more than 100 telephone calls and letters from prospective Democratic delegates asking if they can vote for him at the 1956 convention. The former President says he is declining all offers; explaining that he is not a candidate and will never again seek public office. Truman is also asserting he was only being "neighborly and courteous" when he boosted Harriman while visiting him in Albany. According to Truman, he favors Stevenson but "wants him to get out and work for the nomination. That will do him and the party a lot of good."

WHEN ARTHUR RUBINSTEIN, wizard of the piano, was giving recitals in Scotland, he came down with a very sore throat, and was recommended to a doctor in Edinburgh. Said doctor sprayed Rubinstein's throat without a word being spoken by either party. The same scene was repeated in silence a second day and the third. Finally, Rubinstein complained, "I can't understand why I'm not responding to treatment. Can you hazard an explanation, Doctor?"

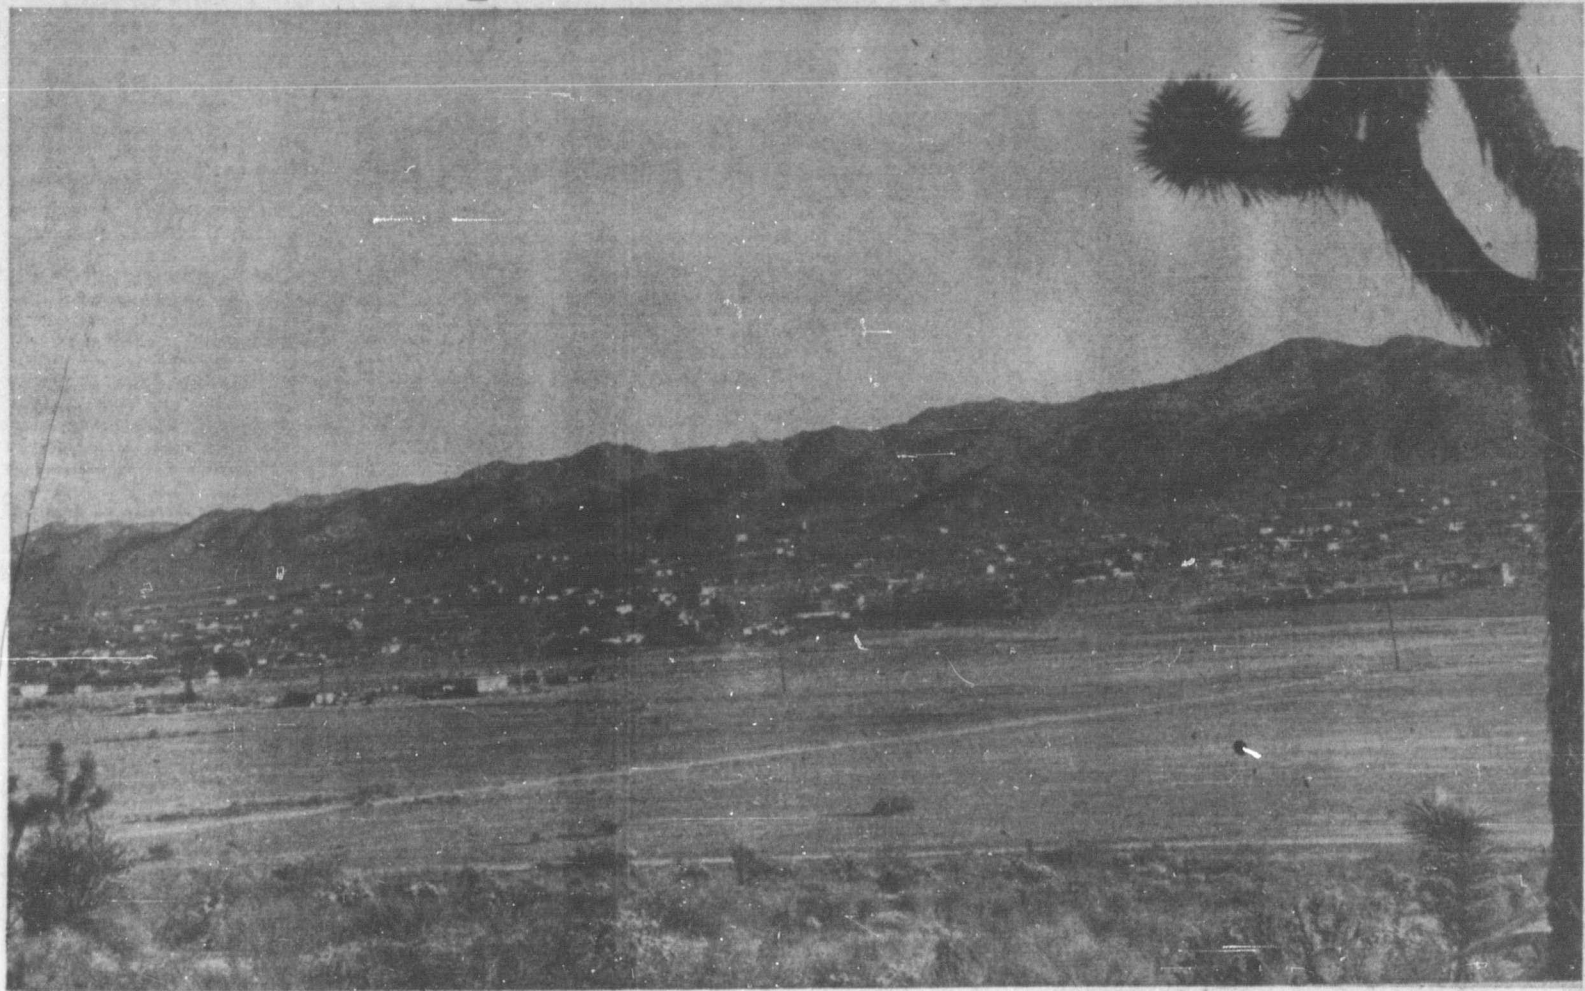

"I can," said the doctor testily. "You talk too much."

Yucca Valley Is Example of Desert Growth

By CARLETTE

Yucca Valley is a beautifully planned little village with big prospects for business and good living. That is the impression one gets from the panorama seen from the foothills surrounding the town. One feels that Yucca is there to stay and grow and this fact is borne out by the evidence visible in her building projects. Many churches have been built in the last few years. The latest is a beautiful Catholic church, St. Mary's of the Valley. The Desert Christ Park is almost beyond description and is visited by people from all over the country. A glance at the guest book bears this out.

THERE IS EVERY civic organization one could wish to belong to.

Clubs of many names. One of the oldest and most active is the Community Club. Recreational facilities abound to suit all tastes.

It is hard to write about all the activities in Yucca Valley without making it read like a Chamber of Commerce brochure. The interesting sights one would like to visit would take too long to describe at this time.

The Burnt Mountain Dude Ranch, all the fine motels in the town—any place one liked to stay for a day or week, would prove of worth for sheer enjoyment. There is no better example of a growing desert community than this lively little village.

THE JOSHUA FORESTS begin here and extend into the Monument which backs up the valley. Many trails for riding, many byroads that are scenic and just about everything one could want for a real vacation in the desert is available at any time of the year in Yucca Valley.

The last ten years have been a period of planning and working to make this desert town the real thing in desert living. In 1944 there was one gas station and grocery store. With power lines through the valley, the boom time came and seems to be steadily growing.

There is little more that can be said except that Yucca Valley is destined to be one of the best towns in the High Desert area and will keep her place in the vast Desert Empire.

County Supervisors Visit Valley to Check Labor Plan

A county board of supervisors fact-finding group made a visit this week to the Coachella Valley to investigate the establishment of a migratory labor camp here. The request was prepared by the Coachella Valley Farm Bureau Center and the County Health Department and presented to the Board of Supervisors November 7.

No decision was voiced by the committee, which was comprised of Supervisors Homer Varner, William Jones, Roman Warren and Fred Anderson, following their two hour meeting.

THE PLAN CALLS for the establishment of 128 campsites at the northwest corner of the Thermal airport, near the junction of Highway 99 and Avenue 36. They would be set up much like the facilities offered at recreation camps, with central bath and toilet facilities, outdoor cooking units and water supply for every site.

The Farm Center's report said that three important questions were still unanswered—how to finance the initial installation, how to handle the administration of the camp and how to provide schooling for the children of the workers.

SUPERVISOR HOMER Varner, who presented the plan to the board, said: "I don't know the answers. There is no one school that can handle the load. The schools are bulging at the seams now because of expansion in the valley."

Varner suggested that the proposal should be studied by the superintendent of schools, the road commissioner, the county health officer and the sheriff, since the migratory labor problem affects all those departments.

THE REPORT CALLED present conditions in unsupervised labor camps "a direct reflection" on the county and added that the poor living conditions brought only the poorest class of laborers into the valley.

Working on the plan for the Farm Bureau were Bert Farmer, Bob Bowlin, James O'Brien and the late Henry Sakemi, valley farm leader who was recently killed in a traffic crash.

SEVERAL SUPERVISORS said they realized the seriousness of the problem but indicated that the camp project should be financed and administered locally.

Supervisor Varner replied that it already was a county problem. "The health department and the sheriff are doing all they can, but we aren't giving them any help."

The report said a solution to the migratory labor housing problem would benefit both the farmers and the community as a whole.

LINCOLN
FOR 1956

Longest...Lowest...Most Powerful Lincoln of all time!

Here—pictured the way you see it as it sweeps majestically by—is the new one that's been turning so many heads. And no wonder.

Lincoln for 1956—the longest, lowest, roomiest, most powerful Lincoln of all time—is far and away the newest car on the road.

It's a larger, more luxurious Lincoln—obviously. And from hooded headlights to jet-pod exhausts, the refreshing, clean-lined Lincoln look goes beautifully with this great new size. Inside, greater size means more room, and the leg-room, shoulder-room and hat-room (all increased) comfortably belie the snug-to-the-ground lowness of Lincoln's new silhouette.

And that's just a starter. Match this new Lincoln against any other fine car—on luxury, on safety, and especially on performance—and you'll soon find out why we say this car is the finest in the fine car field.

Most important of all, this new Lincoln is never too proud to prove all we say. Come in any time and take a few turns behind the wheel.

The only completely new car in the fine car field

- New 285-hp Lincoln engine with more usable power than any other car
- New Lincoln Turbo-Drive—most versatile, most obedient of all automatic drives
- New firm, yet gentle ride and effortless handling ease
- New individualized interiors—29 to choose from
- New safety all around you: Retracted steering column with Safety-Flex steering wheel... triple strength safety-plus door locks... optional safety belts... largest windshield area in any car.

Unmistakably...the finest in the fine car field

BOSTON COMES TO PALM SPRINGS. This is the way Miss Mary Mandia looked as she arrived in Palm Springs, wearing suit and hat, gloves and veil. She started out with a topcoat, too, as it was getting ready to snow the day she left Boston.

Bostonian Discovers Palm Springs

Even back in staid Back Bay Boston, Palm Springs is the thing. Each year a Boston department store, Jordan-Marsh Company, conducts a contest among "Women Who Work." This year professional women, representing 24 companies, participated in a fashion writing contest, with the winner to have a week's free vacation in Palm Springs.

The winner, Miss Mary Mandia, executive secretary of American Mutual Liability Insurance Company, is in Palm Springs this week, staying at Pepper Tree Inn. She flew West and this was her first air flight, as well as the first time she had ever been West of Washington, D. C.

When Miss Mandia left Boston it was getting ready to snow there. When she reached Palm Springs, land of sunshine, swimming pools and palm trees, it was another world.

Discarding her Bostonian suit, hat, gloves, and veil, the visitor got into a Palm Springs sun dress, sandals and flowered hat and has been shopping in the Village stores and sightseeing.

Being interested in fashions, she is fascinated with the importance of color in resort clothes. Of the stores, she said, they are "more like Fifth Avenue than Boston."

She has written a column on Palm Springs and sent it back to the Boston newspaper, and Jordan-Marsh is featuring a window of Palm Springs clothes in conjunction with her trip here.

Miss Mandia, who arrived here on Monday morning, will enjoy a week's stay here, with all expenses paid, and go back with colorful memories of her visit to California.

Mrs. Netcher Married to Arthur Little

Harriett (Mrs. Townsend) Netcher said her wedding vows with Arthur Little Jr. of New York, Tuesday evening in the Beverly Hills home of Mr. and Mrs. Hal Roach. About 75 guests witnessed the early evening ceremony, with Dr. Frank Dyer reading the Episcopalian service.

The beautiful bride was pictured in a champagne lace gown with matching veil and cymbidium orchid corsage. She wore a three-strand pearl necklace, the gift of the bridegroom, and was given in marriage by William (Buster) Collier.

Mrs. Collier, matron of honor, wore a gown of champagne peacock de sole and carried a spray of white orchids. Col. Beirne Lay was best man to the bridegroom, who is the son of the late New York book publisher Arthur Little.

After the ceremony over 300 guests attended the reception which was held in the pavilioned patio, and at 10 o'clock a champagne supper was served. The enormous wedding cake was almost four feet high.

Among the guests were: Mrs. Harry Joe Brown, who wore a Don Loper dress of ice blue satin and chiffon, with matching coat, Dr. and Mrs. Alfred Strauss (she in black lace), the Ed Leshins, Charles and Mary Morrison, the Ed Flynn of Pasadena and Santa Barbara, the Herbert Lantins of Beverly Hills, Eddie Goulding, Paquita Machris, the Hal Reach Jr., Alexander and Marjorie Hall, the Walter McGowan of San Francisco, Jimmy Morton, Mrs. Frank Bering, Molly Netcher Bragno, Allen Tomblin, Gene Markey and Lucille Wright, Louella Parsons, the John Haskells, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick McNair of Long Beach, and, of course, the bride's mother, Mrs. Paul Willis Smith of Minneapolis, who spends her winters in Palm Springs.

"The Littles left the next day for New York before going to Palm Beach and Jamaica for their honeymoon. They plan to maintain homes both in New York and in Los Angeles.

Food Experts Tell How to Cook the Perfect Turkey

WASHINGTON, AP — Here are some tips from government food experts on how to cook the "perfect turkey" for Thanksgiving day.

First, select the right size bird for the number of persons you plan to serve — four to 10 servings will take four to eight pounds of bird; 10 to 20 servings, eight to 12 pounds of bird. Remember second helpings count up.

Also be sure to allow two to four days thawing for a large whole frozen bird; one to two days for smaller bird.

On the day, salt the inside of the turkey, stuff (a 6 to 12 pound bird needs two or three quarts of stuffing), and fold the neck skin back, fastening to the backbone with a poultry pin.

Fold the wing tips over the neck skin. Put poultry pins across the body cavity opening, lace across with string, and wrap the string several times around the tail and ends of legs and tie.

Use low even heat (325 degrees) and plan the roasting time so that the turkey will be done 20 to 30 minutes before serving. Department of Agriculture home economists say the "rest" helps to make the meat juicy and carving easy, and gives cook time to make the gravy.

No Water
 Place the bird on a rack in a shallow pan. Do not add water; and do not cover the pan. Place a "tent" of aluminum foil or a piece of thick cloth moistened with fat on top of the turkey. If the skin dries out, baste with pan drippings or melted fat several times during roasting. If the upper breast tends to burn, protect it with a small cloth pad wet frequently with cold water.

Start heavy birds breast down and turn when half done. Smaller birds do well without turning. When roasting is half done or two-thirds done, cut the string to release the legs—the bird cooks better, looks better the experts said. Cooking time for a 4 to 8 pound bird is 3 to 4 1/2 hours; 6 to 12 pound birds, 3 1/2 to 5 hours; 12 to 16 pound bird, 5 to 6 hours; 16 to 20 pound bird, 6 to 7 1/2 hours.

The bird is done and delectable when the leg joints move easily and flesh on the legs is soft and pliable when pressed with the fingers.

Rummage Sale Next Tuesday

Final plans for the Rummage sale were made at the meeting of Soroptimist International of Palm Springs at Chi Chi on Tuesday. The meeting was called to order by Lois Lux in the absence of the president, Wynne Hammond.

Eileen Carey announced that the Club's Rummage Sale, to be held at Frances Stevens School cafeteria on Saturday, will open at 8 a.m. Members will be at the cafeteria both Thursday morning and Friday afternoon to receive donations of clothing and saleable articles of any kind.

For next Tuesday's meeting, Helen O'Brien will present a program on Assimilation.

New Cars Cater to the Women

By REY W. BRUNE

United Press Staff Correspondent
 DETROIT, AP — The automobile manufacturers have remembered feminine tastes in designing their 1956 models, even though the new designs represent no radical changes from 1955.

Studies have convinced the men who make automobiles that women usually decide which new model the family will buy. And women buyers will find many new tempting things in 1956 cars.

One change is in the fabrics. Most manufacturers have searched for new fabrics to dress up the insides of the car, but Packard has gone even farther.

They Zip Off
 If the fabric design or color doesn't satisfy the car buyer, the seat covers can be zipped off and new ones installed. Buyers also can have different front and back seat designs. The zippered-on fabrics also make it easier to remove for washing.

The chrome, two and three-toning design of colors and grilles, and other outside features have been changed slightly on many of the 1956 models. On a Cadillac, a motorist can buy gold chrome if desired.

Chrysler and Packard have put push-button automatic transmissions on cars. For the woman who has found it impossible to solve the intricacies of the gearshift, driving now will become merely a matter of pushing the right button.

Christmas Projects Engross Welfare and Friendly Aid

Members of the Welfare and Friendly Aid Society presented an unusual sight as they left their luncheon meeting Wednesday afternoon . . . for each was carrying a tattered doll under her arm.

This was a symbol of one of their many projects, the Christmas Toys and Baskets which bring Yuletide joy to worthy Palm Springs families. Mrs. Charles H. McFarland, toy chairman, distributed the dolls, which will be freshened-up and dressed in lovely new clothes by the Welfare members and will then be given to little girls for Christmas.

Other Welfare projects were discussed briefly, but the main program Wednesday was an informal talk by Mrs. Marjorie Caylor, Public Health Nurse, who described her work in Palm Springs. Mrs. Roger Williams, chairman ed on all models to make the steering even less work. And Chrysler is offering hi-fi record players—for several hundred dollars extra.

Rear fenders have been raised even more this year, giving them a fin-like appearance — and incidentally, calling them even more to the attention of a woman driver when she starts to park the family car.

Matter of fact, she and hubby both had better watch the fenders when parking the new models.

The more intricate design will make fenders costlier to repair, or replace.

Charm Talk for Woman's Club Monday

On Monday, the members of the Palm Springs Woman's Club will have the pleasure of a very different and interesting type of entertainment.

Margaret Bradshaw Popolo, lecturer, will speak on "Fashion, Charm and Personality." This young woman is co-director of the John Robert Powers School of San Fernando Valley. Formerly manager of the House of Charm in San Francisco and Sacramento, she has been fashion co-ordinator and commentator for San Francisco, Sacramento and Fresno stores.

Mrs. Popolo has appeared on radio and television. She is a drama coach, speech consultant and lecturer to parent-teacher groups in the field of speech correction, and is at present an executive in the California Speech Therapy Association.

Mrs. Chester Moorten is chairman of the tea committee and will be assisted by Mmes. George Manning, Clarence Smith, Trixie Jarrette, William Whitfield, Oscar Gilbert, Bell Hager, Merschel Moseley and Miss Teresa M. Fields.

USE THIS TIMETABLE

Ready-To-Cook Weight* (pounds)	Oven Temperature	Total Cooking Time (hours)
8 to 12	325° F.	4 to 4 1/2
12 to 16	300° F.	4 1/2 to 5
16 to 20	300° F.	5 to 5 1/2
20 to 24	300° F.	5 1/2 to 6

*A stuffed bird weighs approximately the same as before being drawn

- Ready Kilowatt says "Of course there's only one way to roast a turkey to a T—and that's in an electric oven"
- 1 Grease skin with melted or softened fat.
- 2 Place bird on rack breast down in an open shallow pan.
- 3 Unless bird has a generous layer of fat, cover with fat-moistened cloth that is large enough to cover top and sides.
- 4 Roast in a preheated oven at proper temperature (see table).
- 5 Do not sear, add water, or cover pan. If drippings burn, the oven is too hot.
- 6 If cloth dries during cooking, remoisten with fat from bottom of pan.
- 7 Turn bird breast up when about three-quarters done, replacing cloth over breast. Remove cloth if more brown is desired.
- 8 Roast until nicely browned and tender. To test tenderness, press thickest part of drumstick with fingers (don't forget to protect them with cloth). Turkey is done when meat feels quite soft. Also test by moving drumstick up and down. If the leg joint breaks or moves readily, the turkey is done.

Women Golfers Receive Awards at Dinner Show

Winners of the Fifth Annual Women's Invitational tournament at Thunderbird were entertained at a chuckwagon dinner and a club talent variety show and received their awards Wednesday evening.

The stage and chuckwagon were both set up in the big pavilion where glowing braziers combated the chill of the evening.

Awards, including TV sets, movie cameras, a white fox stole, golf bag, radio, leather purse, clocks, watches and sweaters, were made by Ruth Manseau, who with Phyllis Froffat, has headed up the tournament.

Phil Harris, wearing Scotch plaid slacks, a memento of his trip to Scotland this Summer, was in top form as emcee. June Clarke, Lucy Long, Ruby Meyers and June Wade had a little trouble warming up for their cowhands dance, but looked very professional in their abbreviated costumes. Their routine was cleverly planned.

Judy Howard in blackface and Hoagy Carmichael in a false beard and carrying a jug of "moonshine," the "Bridal Suite" skit starring Harris, Joyce Singer and the J. Ross Clarks, were both amusing. Velma Dawson did a Western dance which ended in dragging out a black and white "heifer." June Clarke sang, to the accompaniment of Tony Rose, and Ruby Meyers and daughter Bobbie sang "Cool, Cool Waters." Irene Hines had Phil Harris in stitches as she did a pantomime in blackface that was a take-off on his "Dark Town Poker Game." The audience thought it was pretty funny too.

The grand finale wound up with a Thunderbird song to the tune of "Maryland." The Norma Price Trio were supplying lively music for the dancing. Award winners were: Low Gross, Ruth McCullah, Barbara Romack, Betty Loveys, Pat Blanton, Lila Clark, Jean Damarel, Jo Gardner, Nancy Lupton.

Low Net: Millie Myerson, Peggy Rutledge, Mary Coughran, Bess Cardwell, D. Adams, Maybelle Brevier, Mary Varley, Ruby Meyers, Blanche Dulany, Audrey Stockton, Marian Chase, Fran Boyle, Audrey Finch, Duane McConnell, E. Pletcher, Kay Parmenter, Audrey Stearns, Betty Tarlton, Margery Tomlinson, Dolores Hopper.

Daily winners were: Monday, low gross, Joan Granes; low net, Vicki Street, Ada Hogan, L. Moore. Tuesday, low gross, Dude Atkins; low net, Jean Phillips, Fay Hopkins, Joan Bryan. Wednesday, low gross, Catherine Bruener; low net, C. Simpson, Elizabeth Boynton, Hazel Decker.

Birthday Dinner

Thirty relatives of the Joe Eicher family met at the Fireside Inn in Beaumont Saturday to help Joe Eicher Sr. of Yucaipa celebrate his 60th birthday. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Eicher Jr. of Palm Springs were among the guests. A reception at the Eicher home in Yucaipa followed the dinner at the Inn.

Here for Golf

Here for a week of golf were Dr. and Mrs. Jack Blaisdel of Santa Ana and Mr. and Mrs. George Frueling of Lido Isle. The foursome were guests at the Gordon Howard home in the Outpost Estates. The wives of the visitors played in the Thunderbird Women's Invitational Golf Tournament.

Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Blotter and children

Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Blotter and children Terrill, Denise and Michele spent three days in Los Angeles and were the guests of Mrs. Blotter's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Grossman

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Grossman of Chicago have just arrived in Palm Springs and taken residence in Sunset Towers. They plan to be here for at least six months.

Bluebirds Plant Tree at School

The Chirp 'N Chip Bluebirds and their leader Mrs. Frank Hendrickson and assistant leader, Mrs. A. Belden Crist expressed their appreciation for the assistance given them during their first year, by planting a tree at Katherine Finch school on Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Katherine Warren Linville were thanked for helping organize the group. Supt. Wallace Mueller was thanked for the use of the school cafeteria for weekly meetings.

Rev. William Blondon of St. Paul's, presided at the ceremony. The Bluebirds then planted the tree, with Patricia Payne turning the first shovelful of earth.

Other Bluebirds assisting at the ceremony were: Linda Berta, Linda Sue Crist, Sally Di Paolo, Noel Hendrickson, Pamela Maloof, Jerry Lynn Scott, Margaret Soran, Linda Tuttle and Susie Wrathall.

Doodles

By ROGER PRICE

This, of course, is a highly imaginative Doodle. You may have thought it was "dopey" but the correct term is "highly imaginative." Keep that in mind. I like it though, because it gives me an excuse to publicize Marbles as a wonderful, sportsmanlike pastime for youngsters. It's too bad grown-ups don't play it (or them?). If Marbles achieved international popularity we might even be able to settle differences with other nations by having Marble Tournaments instead of waging destructive wars and signing useless peace treaties. But then, sooner or later, some crazy Dictator would start building Hydrogen Marbles and ruin everything. I guess our present system of blowing each other to smithereens is the best one after all.

ENGLISH YET

Hollywood director Mike Curtiz, that likeable assassin of the King's English, was going over a part in his picture with a well-known actor. "You're new at this college, see?" he explained. "It's your first teaching job. The dean takes you around the campus, then up to the hall to show you your classroom. This is what you studied for all your life! You chucked up. Your chest swells with pride. Tears come to your eyes as you look at the door and see those wonderful words in big letters: John Smith, Professor from English."—E. E. Kenyon, American Weekly.

Church membership in the U. S. has increased 25% in the past 25 years, and there are now 89,500,000 registered church members belonging to the Protestant, Catholic and Jewish faiths. More than $1 billion will be spent to complete new buildings already planned for Protestant churches.—Lawrence Galton, American Magazine.

Sports Sputterings

By WALTER L. JOHNS
Central Press Sports Editor

THEY PLAY it rough in the pro leagues.

It's always been that way as the big men of the paid grid sport, professionals, battered their way to fame and fortune with 200-pound plus bodies and some of that old college spirit.

And, ever so often, some guy gets hurt good and then the officials, the teams and the press take up the cudgel to scream about doing something about it.

Well, let's do something about it. It's up to the commissioner to get his groups together and do something about it. It's up to the coaches to tell their players to cut out that rough stuff — football is rough enough as it is.

IT SEEMS to us that one of the big reasons for the rough stuff, outside of presence on the field of hard-hitting big boys is the rule which permits a player in pro ball to get up and run after a slip or a fall while in college and high school ball the runner is a dead duck.

So many times we have seen backfield men with the ball attempt to gain a few more yards when not completely tackled or after a slip. The result is a big rush of defensive men barging in for the kill. And this frequently leads to fistfuffs in addition to the possibility of serious injury.

We watched Otto Graham get an elbow or fist, as you were, in the neck or jaw during the recent game with the New York Giants. Otto was laid out cold and suffered what was announced as a concussion. Once before Otto got his face smashed in, requiring stitches.

He's not the only one, of course, for other players have been battered, some on purpose, some accidentally, and it's about time that somebody does something about returning the pro game to a college level, where there are enough injuries to take the game out of the sissy class.

ANY CONTACT sport leads to roughness, and it isn't confined to football. Hockey owes much of its popularity to the square-offs and stick pounding of its competitors during the course of a game.

You can't eliminate the rise of tempers of combatants for most of the contact sports require the love of hand-to-hand battles and aggressiveness.

But you can eliminate flagrant violations which lead to serious injury. And it's up to the pro loop heads to do it and enforce the rules.

As the officials permit such tactics on the field, the players get as porky as a bully. During that recent Browns-Giants game one of the Browns shoved an official right on the field when he disliked a call. And he got away with it, too.

Let's hope something is done — before somebody gets killed!

South Carolina Plans Big Sked

COLUMBIA, S. C., (AP) — The University of South Carolina will meet Duke, Miami, Maryland and Clemson among others in football next year. The Gamecocks, who have won only two of eight games thus far this year, will play seven Atlantic Coast Conference schools in 1956 beginning with Duke.

MORRISON ON GOLF

Feel and Timing of the Swing

By ALEX J. MORRISON
Author of "A New Way to Better Golf," Teacher of Champions

EVERY PERSON who has struck a golf ball with a golf club has become more or less conscious of both timing and feel. The indifferent player is aware of feel more than of timing. He despairs of ever mastering a smooth, rhythmic swing. He struggles mainly to smack the ball squarely with that solid feeling connected with distance in the shot. But he finds this element as elusive as the much desired rhythm.

Tournament pro Jack Burke, Jr., says: "None of us pros can keep a swing rolling year-round. For a reason I can't give, we experience our peak timing and feel only two or three times a year. When we find our games failing we just practice and wait for that feel or timing to come back."

WHETHER you are a weekend player or a pro you'll do well to consider some or all of the following points. Re: Feel. You feel something for sure only after you have done it. Then all you can do about it is to use it as a guide for future performances. This is one good reason for not trying to make adjustments on account of feel during your swing. Another good reason is the mistakes you're apt to make when interpreting your sensations. It is extremely easy to feel that you have done one thing when actually you have done the exact opposite. This makes feel a most unreliable means for most players to judge their performances.

Re: Timing. Timing of a sort can be had though using a conglomeration of unorthodox positions and movements. By repeat-

QUARTER MILLION FANS TO WATCH TRADITIONAL BIG GAMES SATURDAY

By HAL WOOD
United Press Sports Writer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Come rain, snow or high water, more than 250,000, one quarter of a million, mind you, fans, will turn out for football games involving Pacific Coast Conference teams on Saturday.

Not because there is anything of major importance at stake—but because of a little item called tradition.

The oldest game is at Eugene, Oregon, where Oregon and Oregon State tangle for the 59th time.

They'll have 25,000 in the stands. Then comes California vs. Stanford, meeting for the 57th conflict before 90,000 at Stanford.

Of course, Washington and Washington State will be at it for the 48th time before about 35,000.

And then, among the Johnny-come-latelys, Southern California tangles with UCLA for the 25th time before 101,000 in the Los Angeles Coliseum.

Idaho, the "half-sister" in the conference, steps outside the loop competition for its traditional foe, Montana University, for the 39th time, before about 10,000 fans at Moscow.

UCLA already has clinched a tie for the PCC championship—even if it loses to Southern California.

On top of that, Coach Red Sanders' club must be considered a cinch to go to the Rose Bowl. The Bruins and their Sam (First Down) Brown have lost only one game this year—to Maryland. They are 10-point favorites to beat the Trojans and if they do they will have undisputed possession of the PCC title for the second year in a row.

Racquet Club to Play Host to Balboa Bay Tennis Club

About 50 men and women tennis enthusiasts will meet at the Racquet Club tonight in preparation for the two-day doubles and mixed doubles tournament.

The Racquet Club will play host to the Balboa Bay Club tennis in the matches, called the Men's and Women's Doubles Tournament.

VAN ZERBE will lead the players from the beach resort as their most enthusiastic tennis player and fan. Zerbe, who was runner up last weekend's Senior Tennis Tournament of the Desert, said the entries from his club will be announced tonight, when the majority of the players arrive.

Heading the Host club's entries will be Charlie Farrell, Mr. and Mrs. Al Jablow, Mousie Powell, Aggie Clarke, Marjorie Jackson, Dinah Shore, Dr. H. B. Pollak, Frank Ripley, Julianna Copeland, Howard Lang and Freeman Dierlan.

THE TOURNAMENT RULES state that the first series of elimination sets will be played by the round-robin method. That is where members of each club's teams form into groups of five to eight, and play one set each.

They play in round-robin sets until the number of netters is sufficiently diminished to make semi-final pairings and seedings possible.

Finals will be played Sunday.

Tournament pro Bud Holscher, halfway down to the ball, indicates that he is intent on whipping the clubhead through the ball. The downswing doesn't allow time for adjustments about feel and timing.

ing them often enough the player can minimize the inefficiency ordinarily afforded by such positions and movements. Obviously, the more incorrect are the positions and movements the more they must be practiced. The most consistent timing and feel are had by mastering the correct positions and movements which includes the right order of executing them.

SMC Nine-Hole Golf Course Set for Play Monday

Women golfers at Shadow Mountain Club will twist their spikes into their shoes and will head for the 9-hole course, which will be ready Monday.

According to the club's pro, Bob Pinnell, handicapping will start immediately for all women members. Mary Caplinger will be in charge of the handicap department.

June Goodwin, president of the women's golf club, said 34 Shadow Mountain Club women attended a pre-season luncheon. Plans were made for the season's future events which will start off with a Christmas party.

Christmas party planning and entertainment committees were named. They included Minna Adlington, Ruby Moore, Dottie Blades, Irene Cornelius and Vivian Jones.

Pinnell said a full schedule of golfing for the ladies has been made, and urged them to start practice as soon as they can after the course is completed Monday.

Sammy White on Tour

BOSTON, (AP) — Sammy White, Boston Red Sox catcher, will join a troupe of entertainers on November 24 on an Army-sponsored tour of American bases and hospitals in Europe and North Africa. White is the only athlete in the troupe.

Indians Close at San Jacinto

Redskins to Go All Out to Cinch Third

Tonight's football game between Palm Springs Indians and the San Jacinto Tigers, there at 8 p.m., will feature an all-out effort by Indian coach Clare Ballagh to call third place in the Riverside County League his own.

Ballagh has had his varsity practicing double swing "T" formation plays under wraps for two weeks in preparation for this last-of-the-season effort. Should tonight's game end in a win for the local lads, it would put them in third place. Not bad for a group who four weeks ago were one short step away from the cellar.

THROUGH THE SIX games played previously by the Indians, who won three, lost two, and tied one, they ran a straight or single wing "T".

Since they are out to make that small nick in RCL standings tonight, they are trying the switch, and Ballagh hopes they will confuse the Tigers sufficiently to hold their power to nothing.

The score should be 26-20, at the close of the circuit closing game. Palm Springs' seems destined to hold the 26.

Ballagh said the Indians are definitely ready. He said they consider it the big game, more than the others. The youngsters will attack the Tigers' smelling of fresh victory after their steamrolling of Beaumont last week, 20-0, on a muddy and cold field. Palm Springs impressed the statisticians when they tallied more than 200 yards by rushing against the Pass city.

TONIGHT'S GAME, of course is no pushover. Both teams will be trying, and San Jacinto has much more to try with than Beaumont had. The Tigers were considered by many persons, some of them not even attending San Jacinto High, to win this year's top spot on league play.

They proved to be a hot and cold group, and as the season progressed, they became less and less of a threat.

Perris, with five losses and no wins going in, threw all their puny strength at power-laden San Jacinto and came out with a 0-0.

TONIGHT, the Indians will put the pressure on the two youths who have been helping them in their climb to the near-top; tailback Mickey Pellum and fullback John Cunningham.

BOWLING

A pin from the Triplicate Club of the American Bowling Congress will be awarded to Nebby Neblung because he bowled three games Wednesday night in League Competition at Palm Springs Bowling Academy, each one at 179.

Neblung, who was rolling in the weekly Palm Springs Men's League as a member of Elks 1905, will receive the pin after notification is received from the League president by ABC, and they sent it by mail to Neblung.

At the same league competition, George Kuffner, of Paddock Pools team, posted the highest scores in individual play, both in overall series and one-game competition. His series score was 561, his game, 231.

In the team series score, the standing went as follows:

Yellow Dogs 4.

Mayfair Market 0.

Paddock Pools 3.

Bowling Academy 1.

Elks 1905 3.

Plaza Motors 1.

The Yellow Dogs were the high series of 539, and Julie Eddiele Elks were high game scorers, 948.

Four of the Palm Springs Desert League rolled Tuesday evening, and Hensen's Radio and TV scored best games as a team. Their series score was 2855, their game score, 993.

Bill Hendrickson, of Hensens, won high individual honors with his series of 539, and Julie Eddiele of the Police Team bowled the best single game of the evening, 197.

The team scores are as follows: Hensen's Radio and TV 3.

Police Team 1.

Chester's Real Estate 3.

Hotshots 1.

Announce Shift in Volley, Cage Practice Nights

The City Rec. Volleyball League and the City Rec. Basketball League will switch their previously reported practice schedules. It was announced Tuesday in the Desert Sun that six volleyball teams would meet for practice at the high school gym on Monday, 7-10 p. m., and that five basketball teams would meet at the same time and place two days later for registration and practice.

Howard Haddock announced yesterday that the Basketball League will meet on Mondays, and Volleyball on Wednesdays, starting this week.

Haddock, the City Recreation Director, asked that all managers bring their teams to the gym those nights so the league roster can be made out and games scheduled.

He said there will be no league entry fee for the volleyball players, but that each member of the basketball teams will be charged $1 for the season.

Little said there has been little agitation for any changes in the rules of football this season.

Perhaps the biggest demand for any rules action, he said, has been for the placing of a curb on false starts, more commonly known as the "sucker shift."

The more liberal substitution rule adopted before the present season is "universally liked," Little said.

Little said there was only a smattering of agitation for a return to the two-plate system, placing the goal posts on the goal lines and for permitting players to run with opponents' fumble recoveries. But he said these rules were not likely to be adopted.

Rain Threat Looming for Grid Classic

LOS ANGELES, (AP) — The nationally televised UCLA-Southern California "game of the week," faced the threat today of possibly being played in the rain.

Another rainstorm due to hit Southern California tonight posed a new obstacle to both teams. The weatherman said there was a good chance the rain would end in Los Angeles by noon tomorrow, an hour and a half before the kickoff.

Bill Nicholas, manager of Memorial Coliseum, said he was taking every precaution for a dry field at game time. He said he would cover the gridiron with a giant tarpaulin tonight and leave it there until the kickoff, if necessary.

Neither UCLA nor Southern California has played well in the rain this year. UCLA dropped its only loss to Maryland in a downpour, and SC bowed to Washington in rain.

Rivals Conclude Practice for Game

LOS ANGELES, (AP) — Both UCLA and Southern California, having staged their final workouts for tomorrow's big game, merely limbered up today and then retired to their hotel hideaways to await kickoff time.

While UCLA took the day off yesterday, SC Coach Jess Hill worked his team for about an hour on a muddy gridiron at Bovard Field in final preparation for the nationally televised game of the week.

Hill said, "I think we're ready for a football game" after yesterday's drill, which was devoted mostly to pass defense despite UCLA's loss of its injured star tossing tailback, Ronnie Knox.

Gridiron Rules to be Unchanged Says Committee

NEW YORK, (AP) — The Football Coaches Association rules committee has "no new rule changes in mind" and feels that the present code "is as good as we could hope to have," Lou Little of Columbia, the committee chairman, reported Thursday.

Little said there has been little agitation for any changes in the rules of football this season.

Perhaps the biggest demand for any rules action, he said, has been for the placing of a curb on false starts, more commonly known as the "sucker shift."

The more liberal substitution rule adopted before the present season is "universally liked," Little said.

Little said there was only a smattering of agitation for a return to the two-plate system, placing the goal posts on the goal lines and for permitting players to run with opponents' fumble recoveries. But he said these rules were not likely to be adopted.

Santee Plans Appeal from Suspension

KANSAS CITY, Mo., (AP) — America's fastest miler will appeal his permanent suspension from AAU sponsored track events here Sunday.

Wes Santee, former University of Kansas ace who has come within a whisker of the four-minute mile on several occasions, will appear in person before the Missouri Valley AAU board of managers if he can find transportation here from his Marine base at Quantico, Virginia.

Santee's suspension over expenses for his participation in three California track meets last May would wreck his chances to run in the Olympics in Australia next year.

If the appeal to the Missouri Valley AAU fails, Santee can appeal to the national AAU at its convention in Louisville, Ky., December 1-4.

Lined up behind the Ashland, Kansas, runner were Santee's former coach, Bill Easton of Kansas University, and Sen. Frank Carlson, R-Kan.

Easton termed the suspension of the cocky star "not a very fair and sportsmanlike proposition," and charged the AAU brought the rule "out of hiding" in the Santee case.

Optimist Dance to Benefit Club Project for Boys

First annual dance under the sponsorship of the Palm Springs Optimist Club will take place at 8:30 p.m., tomorrow, at the Ranch Club with all of the net proceeds to be used by that organization in boys' work.

This announcement made by Bill Whiteley, president, also included an invitation to the general public to attend.

He said that a good orchestra would furnish music for dancing and that a large number of out-of-town notables of the Optimist clubs would be present.

"The cause is a worthwhile one, and I am sure that residents in this resort area will respond by being present for the dance. The cost is nominal and everybody is guaranteed a good time," Whiteley said.

"The work of the Optimist Clubs among boys is extensive and takes a considerable amount of money to continue the program. Everybody come on out and have a good time."

New Jet Planes to Drastically Cut Costs, Prediction

SACRAMENTO, — Jet airplanes now in production will cost less to ride than buses and cut air freight rates by two-thirds, an aircraft executive said today.

Carl B. Squier, vice president of Lockheed Aircraft Corp. said two types of jet planes, turbojets and propjets, were fast approaching mass production for civilian use.

"These propjet planes will carry cargo at rates about one-third of those necessary now," Squier said. "The aircraft planes will have passenger-seat mile costs lower than anything we have today, lower even than present bus fares."

He said orders for 190 jet and project civilian planes, at a total cost of 880 million dollars have been placed this year. He estimated sales would pass the one billion dollar mark by the end of the year.

Red Refrigerators Too Hot is Protest

BERLIN, — East German Communists said Thursday production has been stopped on several types of refrigerators.

Reports from East Berlin said housewives complained that their new ice boxes got hot like stoves.

Eight members of the U. S. Supreme Court have served terms of 30 years or more since it was founded in 1789.

D. C. Stachler Returns from Zone Meeting

D. C. Stachler, owner of Stack Chevrolet, has just returned from Los Angeles where he took part in a meeting of the Chevrolet Dealer Planning Committee for this zone.

Stachler was elected to the committee by fellow dealers under a nationwide program by which Chevrolet keeps in touch with retail selling problems. In his position he acted as spokesman for other Chevrolet dealers in this area.

The dealer committee system was pioneered in 1937 by Chevrolet and has since been widely used in the automotive and other merchandising fields. The program serves as another means by which dealers and the company exchange

Princess Mag. Dr. Salk, Named as Tops of Year

NEW YORK, — The nation's radio news executives have named Dr. Jonas Salk as the man of the year. Princess Margaret was voted the most newsworthy woman of the year.

They made their selections in a pool conducted by United Press among its almost 1,700 radio news wire clients.

President Eisenhower, who has won the poll in three previous years, ran Dr. Salk a close second. Konrad Adenauer was third and Adlai Stevenson fourth.

Princess Margaret dominated the field in the voting in the women's field. Clare Booth Luce, the U.S. Ambassador to Italy, was second with one-sixth the votes polled by Margaret. Mrs. Eisenhower, who won the poll two years ago, was third.
